Mr. Kevin J. Martin, Chairman
Federal Communications Commission
445 12th St. SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Mr. Martin:

Greetings! We need your help and understanding concerning a problem that threatens to financially overwhelm us. My wife and I are retired and have been on a relatively fixed income since 1993. Our long distance service became very expensive with numerous surcharges and state and federal taxes and we found it necessary to drop this plan. Currently we make only a few calls using a calling card. Because my wife has been recovering from a mild stroke our physician recommended that she carry a cell phone reserved only for emergency use. This is a limited pay-as-you-go card-type fee. We are quite satisfied with the plan and hope to continue it.

Recently I have followed events that indicate a potential for a flat fee surcharge on the usage of this device. My feeling is that this is detrimental to seniors who need this service for medical emergency and driving security. I strongly urge you and your committee to reject any flat-fee proposal for seniors. We would appreciate very much if you would consider the situation with seniors and make them exempt from additional fees. Thank you!; and congratulations on your new position.

Sincerely,

Lynn C. Walker
